CALIFORNIA IMPLANT INSTITUTE

ONLINE
PRP & PRF
PROGRAM

Tuition
$1,495
50 CE Credits

Platelet-rich plasma (PRP) and its derivatives are a mainstay in oral implantology. This online program, which includes a pre-recorded live patient demonstration, explains the science behind autologous blood concentrates and how they accelerate healing and promote tissue regeneration. Participants will learn how to identify cases indicated for the use of PRP and PRF, as well as how to select appropriate bone grafting materials to combine with these biologic modifiers. In addition, the course provides training in proper phlebotomy techniques, which are essential for the successful preparation and use of PRP and PRF. This program is provided in collaboration with Quintessence Publishing.

Topics:

- The Science of Natural Wound Healing
- Surgical Applications
- Biologic Growth Factors, PRP, and BMP
- Armamentarium in PRP & PRF Kits
- Use of PRF in Guided Bone Regeneration
- Principles and Practice of Phlebotomy
